Select one of the following:

Normal - For payments of qualified medical expenses. Save your receipts.

Disability - If the disability renders you unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity and it is medically determined that the condition will last continuously for at least 12 months or lead to death. Disability distributions are subject to ordinary income tax.

Prohibited Transaction - Use of HSA funds for anything other than a qualified medical expense; if not corrected in a timely manner, IRS penalties may be imposed.

Excess Contribution Removal - Amount of excess contribution $: _____ Date excess contribution occurred: _____

Rollover to Accountholder - Check will be made payable to HSA Accountholder and mailed to your address on file. NOTE: IRS limits the number of rollovers that may be taken, how quickly rollovers must be completed and how the trustee or custodian must report the transaction. If you need additional information, please contact your tax advisor. By selecting this option, you are certifying to the bank that you have satisfied the rules and conditions applicable to your rollover and that you are making an irrevocable election to treat the transaction as a rollover. The funds you receive from the distribution of an HSA must be deposited into another HSA within 60 days from when you receive them. You are entitled to one distribution per year per HSA which may be rolled over. You are entitled to roll over the same assets only once in a twelve-month period.
